CLIENT FEEDBACK

The coaching Mary-Louise has provided me has been invaluable. We've worked together on leadership presence and impact, influencing, presentation skills, and transitions between roles. She is challenging and supportive at the same time, and her advice and tips are always practical to implement; the improvement is usually immediately apparent.

Richard Henderson
Chief Risk Officer, Tesco Bank

Mary-Louise has coached senior executives with our business across the five sectors and markets in which we operate. She has high integrity, intellect and a knowledge in her field that has set her apart from many other branded companies we have used.

Therese Procter
Head of HR, Tesco Bank

Mary-Louise is one of the foremost experts in One-To-One Coaching and Women's Leadership Development, in either a one to one coaching environment or running workshops and development sessions. Her ideas are focussed, and embody the best practice that is currently available. People trust her, and seek her advice and guidance.
